

Liberia Center for Outcomes Research in Mental Health LICORMH

Angie Tarr Nyakoon, RN, BSc, MSc
Position: Member

With more than 21 years of professional Nursing & Program Management experience, Mrs. Angie Tarr Nyakoon has a diverse background in Nurse Management and leadership. For over 8 years, she worked with various Hospitals in and out of the capital city of Monrovia, Liberia and ensured patient wellbeing in accordance with standards set by the Liberian Boards of Nursing and Midwifery.

In her current role, Angie heads the Mental Health Unit at the Ministry of Health, where she Coordinator, guide, direct and supervise the overall development of Mental Health, Neurological and Substance Use Disorders Services with the 15 counties, departments within the Ministry, local and international partners as well as Line Ministries.

Angie holds a Bachelor of Science (BSc) Degree in Nursing from the Mother Patern College of Health Sciences in Liberia, a master's degree in Community Mental Health from the University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia, High School Diploma & WAEC Certificate from the R.C. Lawson Institute with several other Certificates from various short course training workshops in and out of Liberia.